

PTC Select is searching for an Experienced Network Engineer to assist our clients with their technology needs.

What's in it for you:

- Competitive compensation package
- Benefits (medical, life, disability)
- Retirement plan (401K, profit sharing)
- Challenging technical environment, supportive work environment

What you will be doing:

- Work with clients to determine technology infrastructure requirements and make architectural recommendations
- Setup, configure, and maintain enterprise-class networks
- Document design and changes to systems.
- Design and implement monitoring solutions for production environments for availability and performance.
- Design, implement, and maintain system backups and recovery procedures.
- Troubleshoot system issues and respond to critical situations.
- Communicate clearly with clients about issues and resolution of those issues.

What you will need:

- Good customer service skills
- Good verbal and written communication skills
- Broad knowledge of Microsoft operating systems and servers: SQL, Exchange, IIS
- Understanding of LAN and WAN infrastructure
- Associate or Bachelor of Science degree or technology-related field preferred
- Microsoft and CompTIA Certification preferred

What we need:

- Resume with references and cover letter (your information will be kept confidential)